

Online Information Session :Scholarship Program at National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies(GRIPS)

Date & Time

29 Fri. Oct. 2021 | 12:00-1:00pm EAT(East African Time)

Venue

Zoom

To participate, kindly register <https://cutt.ly/nEWELdK>

What is Scholarship Program at GRIPS?

GRIPS, National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies, one of universities in Japan, has “GRIPS Global Governance Program.” It looks for candidates in Africa for a fully-covered Japanese Government (MEXT*) Scholarship program while targeting mid-career officers in government ministries (such as Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Ministry of Finance, Ministry of Trade and Industry, and related institutions). Areas of interest should be political science, political sociology and historical sociology. Applicants should be 35 years and below, must possess a master’s degree and be ready to pursue a doctoral degree (Ph.D. in Advanced Policy Studies).

*MEXT: the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology-Japan

Contact: studyinjapan@oia.hokudai.ac.jp

For more details

National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies (GRIPS)
Global Governance Program(G-Cube)

<https://www.grips.ac.jp/g-cube/en/>

Hosted by

Study in JAPAN for Africa

